++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Cloudy and wet start to the weekend, then fine later.

This Evening and Tonight:
Dry at first, though a band of cloud and rain will soon arrive in Cornwall and spread to all areas overnight, giving persistent rainfall. Feeling cold, partly due to strengthening winds. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Saturday:
The rain will continue for a time, before clearing to the east by midday. Dry through the afternoon with sunny spells and winds easing. Feeling mild. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Dry with some sunny spells Sunday and for much of Monday. Cloud, outbreaks of rain and stronger winds arrive from the west on Monday afternoon and continue through Tuesday.
